A bad cause generally resorts to bad eggs to sustain it.

If everybody were like Jones, chairman of the National Popercat committee, American labor would not be employed.
Then what business has he to interfere with labor and those who employ it.

That Darrow who is a "daisy" is opposed, he says, to government by injunction and yet he went before Judge Tuley asking for an injunction against the representatives of law in Chicago. He, like his party, surely, is a "daisy."

Jones, of Arkansas, who is running the Popercat campaign and who thinks he is fighting Mark Hanna has ordered his boys to obey Mark's request that everybody fly the American flag on the 21st.
Some of them seem to have mistaken the order and are burning the American flag and in other cases tearing it down.

Some Chicago speaker says the election of Bryan means the suspension of speculation. That is the story plain and simple. If Bryan is elected the people will have neither gold or silver in circulation. Only cheap money will circulate and it will be mighty cheap when issued by repudiators. Repudiators have no credit and money they would issue would be mighty cheap.

James A. Connolly.

Never has there been so magnificent and manly a campaign made in this congressional district as has been made by James A. Connolly. He has presented the issues of the campaign fairly and honestly, without effort to appeal to class prejudice or passion. He has told the story of honest money and honest citizenship and has exposed the motives of men who would commit the country to repudiation and turn labor against its own interest in order to get into office. On the contrary his opponent has been forced by the superiority of Major Connolly as a statesman and the disintegrated condition of the free silver issue to resort to trickery and to falsify the record of Major Connolly in congress to further his interests but as the people love fair play and prefer to have the district represented in congress with ability they will note the contrast between the campaign made by the congressional candidates as well as between their abilities and will return Major Connolly to congress by as large a majority as they accorded him when he ran against William M. Springer in 1894.

Sam Small Talks About Wheat.

The Hon. Sam Small is coming to Decatur to talk silver, a subject of which he absolutely knows nothing, as is evidenced by the fact that in a recent speech in this county he said England was opposed to free silver because it can now come into the United States and buy an ounce of silver for 65 cents and take it to India where an ounce of silver always exchanges for a bushel of wheat. In the first place at the time he made his speech an ounce of silver would buy more than a bushel of wheat in this country and no Englishman would be fool enough to carry bullion to India to buy wheat under the conditions set up by Sam Small which was made out of whole cloth by Sam Small to fool somebody. Sam's ability to misrepresent the facts is what makes a demand for him by Popercat leaders.

That quality is what makes "Little Clants" among free silverites.

The Illogical Bryan

W. J. Bryan, at Peoria, where he is in a half hearted way, denounced those who mistreated Carlisle at Covington, in the same connection said the people were irritated and dissatisfied with those who have changed their minds about silver and never explained why they changed. Of course Bryan assumes that changing ones mind always needs explanation which is a false assumption. If a man were swimming against the stream to reach the shore and should change his course and swim with the stream, according to Bryan he would have to explain why he changed when that would be apparent to every witness. Carlisle voted for the free coinage of silver when the silver in the standard silver dollar was worth 94 cents. It is only worth 53 cents now.
The fall in the price of silver explains why honest men who voted for free coinage in 1878 have changed their minds.
This historic fact is sufficient explanation to anybody whose breeding takes him out of the ranks of those whose ambition is to throw eggs at American citizens and lie about American statesmen both dead and living.

Is It Mobocracy?

Mobocracy is the name which in the light of recent events would more properly characterize the followers of Bryan as defined by himself and his campaigners than any of the names thus far given them. The incendiary speeches delivered before the convention which nominated Bryan, by himself and others, the production of the convention in the shape of a platform assailing the federal courts and reasserting the dogma of state sovereignty was the spirit of a mobocracy. State eggs and the denial of the right of free speech to Carlisle and others and noiswhich refuse those who dispute the right of any aggregation of American citizens to promulgate a vicious and dangerous platform on which to ride into power, to be heard, are all fit sequels to such conventions and such candidates and it is not strange that Jones, of Arkansas, where the right of free speech, free ballot and free life are disregarded, should attempt, as he is doing to incite insurrection to help along a cause which is so infamous that tens of thousands of Democrats in every state who believe in good government have repudiated it rather than passively submit to it.

Jones is a fitting chairman of a national committee committed to and representing heresy and disorder. He is just the man, trained in just the political school in the proper state to do the job he considers himself commissioned to do.
He is one of those dangerous politicians, who being devoid of patriotism, considers that partisan ends justifies the use of any means even revolution and anarchy to attain them, and as the campaign is nearing the close and he sees that the heresy of free silver has not fooled the people, as it was thought it would to the extent of causing a tidal wave of popular favor, and the election of a free silver president, he has started a forgery mill and a riot mill in the hope of recovering lost ground. He and his henchmen have been caught in at least four forgeries, the Foraythe forgery, the Sigourney forgery, the London Financial News forgery and a combination of forgeries in relation to the use of money by the Republican committee to hire voters to stay away from the polls. No sooner were these frauds exposed than the attempt to incite strikes and riots by appealing to workmen to demand an agreement from their employers that their wages should be raised and not reduced in case of McKin-ley's election advising them to strike if the demand was refused. This is the style of campaign which grows out of that style of platform and this is the style of campaign Jones of Arkansas is making. It is the style of platform and campaign the loyal citizens of America will crush to death on the third day of November and crush it so hard that no party will ever again attempt to carry the country by an appeal to a spirit of anarchy.

The attempt to incite trouble between the employer and the employee is perhaps the most infamous of all considering Jones and his committee. There is not a half dozen of them who either employ labor or who labor for wages. Jones himself neither employs labor nor labors for wages and yet having no such interest he has the impudence to attempt to disturb these relations which exist between others in an effort to carry an election. Labor and its employment is the great factor in giving the country property but Jones would throw it all into chose at as crucial time as this under our present depression to elect Bryan who stood for nothing except antagonism to the best interests of labor—a man who would pay labor only 50 cents for every dollar it earns and on top of that would reduce the present inadequate tariff 50 per cent and open wider the gates for the importation of foreign goods our people should be employed in producing. Jones employs no labor. He hails from a state where ballot box stuffing is considered more profitable than the extension of American industries and we submit that such a man is not and in the nature of things cannot be considered the friend of labor, and never is, except about election time when he tries to deceive the wage earners of the country by inciting them to strike to pull Popercat chestnuts out of the fire for Popercat office seekers.

The friends of labor are those who employ labor and not the Joneses who try to create discord between labor and those who employ it. We mistake the temper of the American people if this attempted interference of Arkansas Jones will not be thoroughly and completely condemned at the polls by wiping out Jones, Bryan, Altgeld and Tillman and the entire Mohocrat party.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity.
Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they Condensed Testimony.

Charles H. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a cough remedy. J. D. Brown, proprietor St. James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a cough of two years' standing, caused by a gripple, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E. 25th street, Chicago, always keeps it on hand and has no fear of Croup, because it instantly relieves. At West's drug store.

THE REPUBLICAN WOMEN.

Mrs. Mary T. Carriel Made an Address Before a Meeting of the Members Saturday Afternoon.

The members of the Women's Republican club held an interesting meeting Saturday afternoon at Abbott's Hall. There was a large attendance of ladies. The main feature of the meeting was the address given by Mrs. Mary T. Carriel, the candidate on the Republican ticket for the office of university trustee of this state. Several matters of business were disposed of. Mrs. Abel presided over the meeting. Mrs. K. Harwood suggested that the ladies take some active part in the Republican rally to be held in this city next Saturday evening. She thought it would be well for the members of the club to prepare a float and have on it young women dressed to represent the different states of the union. The matter was given up as it was feared the weather would be too cold and young women might endanger their health by taking part in the parade. The chairman urged all members of the club who had vehicles to take part in the procession which is to be held the day before election. Some points were given in regard to registration and Mrs. Harwood explained to the ladies how to vote the ballot. She said that this was the banner district and county in the state.

When Mrs. Carriel arrived she was given the handkerchief salute by the members of the club. She was introduced and made a short address. She spoke of her recent trip to Chicago and said that at first she did not want to go but had been delightedly entertained and went home greatly pleased with the reception she had received. She referred to the prejudice against women voting and said that some were afraid of stepping over the lines of conventionality but that the women were shown respect at the polls and were coming forth in all their strength to vote. It might be uncomfortable to go to the polls but yet the women would jostle shoulder to shoulder with persons of sin and shame while going into a theatre and they ought to be willing to do for their country's honor what they were willing to do for their own pleasure and pleasure. Woman's influence was unbounded and it was never needed more than now. Mrs. Carriel said that the state university was the child of the brain of her father, John Turner. He graduated from Yale College and came to this state and devised the plan of agricultural industrial education, a thing which has prospered beyond Illinois. Her father spent many years of work on the university and now in his ninety-first year he was pleased with the honor that had been shown his daughter and anticipated with the joy her carrying on the work he had begun.

REGISTER ON TUESDAY.

October 27 is the Last Day to Get Your Name on the Books.

All Republican voters should bear in mind the fact that Tuesday, Oct. 27, is the last day for registration. Every voter should see to it that his name is on the poll book in his voting precinct, and thus avoid trouble and annoyance on election day. You will have to go to your voting precinct in person October 27. Your name may have been put down by the judges on the first day of registration, which was Oct. 13, but if it is not down, you cannot have it recorded on Oct. 27, unless you appear in person. Remember this point, and be sure to see that your name is down. If it is not on the register, you will have to make affidavit on election day that you are a legal voter.

SHUT OUT.

The Trial of the Drunk Case Comes to a Sudden End.

In the circuit court Saturday afternoon the appeal case of I. A. Buckingham et al vs Melvin Davis, affecting the expense of keeping a ditch open in the southern part of the county, came to sudden end, when Attorney LeForge for the defendant, made a motion that all evidence offered by the plaintiff be excluded from the jury on the ground that all of the eighteen parties interested in the contract were not represented as plaintiffs, only five of that number being on record. The law requires that in such an action all of the eighteen parties should be represented. Attorney Buckingham for the plaintiffs combated the technical point, but Judge Vail decided in favor of the defendant and he instructed the jury to find a verdict for the defendant. It was done at once without the jury leaving their seats. The plaintiffs at once entered a motion for a new trial. The costs in the case thus far amount to $200.

STOLEN GOODS.

Burglars Break in and Steal at Decatur and Marietta.

Sunday night one or more burglars broke into Frank P. Towne's general store at Marietta and got away with nearly $100 worth of goods. They took a lot of gloves, shirts, shoes, 200 or 300 cigars and other articles. Mr. Towne has no clue. He offers a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of the thieves.

During the temporary absence of the night operator a thief got into the Vandalla freight house Sunday night and stole a box of cigars. The cigars are of the Three Kings brand.

CAMPAIGN NEWS.

The Trip to Argenta—Going to Clinton and Blue Mound, Thursday.

This is the last week of the campaign and Saturday night the Republicans will close the demonstrative battle with a great hurrah parade, one which will outshine anything yet attempted in former campaigns. Details will be announced in a few days.

At Argenta Saturday Night.

Saturday night nearly 150 people with the Gouker Martial band went to Argenta on a special train and joined in a big torchlight demonstration, the liveliest display Argenta has ever had. The paraders marched all over town and figuratively speaking set the place on fire.

The big hall was crowded to hear the speaking and hundreds were unable to enter. Dr. Thomas was the chairman. Excuse W. C. Johns delivered the principal address which was accorded attention and was received with much enthusiastic approval. He was followed by A. H.
Mills and Attorney Wilson, both of whom gave good speeches. The party got home about 11 o'clock.

Two Trips Ahead.

On Thursday, Oct. 29, there will be a trip of Republicans on a special train to Clinton. The train will leave early in the forenoon at 9.40, and Goodman's Band will go along. There is to be a day parade at Clinton that day and Decatur will be in it. The party will return at 4.10
p. m.

Thursday evening a special train will be run to Blue Mound. Goodman's band will go along, also the fireworks brigade.
The round trip rate will be 43 cents.
It is planned to give Blue Mound a great hurrah with lots of music and real fire.
The speakers will be Hon. W. C. Johns and Attorney T. M. Hehert.

HEILMAN & SON'S NEW STORE.

Grand Opening of the Model Fancy Grocery House.

D. H. Heilman & Son, fancy grocers, are now "at home" in their new store at the old stand in the rebuilt Ulrich block on Merchant street and invite all their old customers and the public generally to give them a call. The room is 10x30, including a basement and upper rooms. It is the largest and most complete grocery house in the city, the stock being all new and embracing a complete line of household supplies. Call. Souvenirs this evening for the ladies.

During the opening days, beginning today, the firm will serve hot coffee, tea, salads, canned fruits and vegetables.

Larger Ballot Boxes.

Larger ballot boxes will be required on election day. The ticket will be as big as two pages of the Republican and the old boxes will not be big enough to receive all that will be cast in any voting district in the county. Therefore it became necessary to prepare for the emergency. County Clerk Dodd has ordered 31 new boxes. Each will be 21x30 inches in size, made of galvanized iron. The old boxes are 12x16 inches in size.

Funerals Sunday.

The funeral of the late John Ryan was held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock from St. Patrick's Catholic church. Rev.
Father P. J. Mackin officiated and the burial was at Calvary cemetery.

The funeral of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith was held Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock from St.
Patrick's church, Father Brady officiating. The burial was at the Catholic cemetery.

Social.

On Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock will be given an entertainment at the Baptist church by the Christian Endeavor Society entitled "The Nations," in which the cause of missions will be presented by representatives of the several nations.
Refreshments will be served during the evening to all present. No admission fee will be charged. Everybody is invited.
During the evening, a free will offering will be taken for the cause of missions.

When You Buy Coal.

Keep in mind that the best coal in the market is Decatur coal. It is the hardest, makes more heat and lasts longer than any other soft coal. Every ton of it that you buy is just so much money kept right here in Decatur. The more of it you buy the more miners and teamsters we can employ. They spend their money in town and part of it must of necessity find its way to you. When you buy coal order

The steel is on the way for the construction of the Montgomery, Mettlin and P. D. & E. bridges. It comes from the Joliet Bridge and Iron Company for which G. A. Brawner is the Decatur agent. As soon as the steel arrives the work of construction will be pushed forward rapidly.

Death of a Child.

Emma, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Morera, died of membranous croup at 6 o'clock this morning at the family residence, No. 1318 East Orchard street. The funeral will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the residence.

Did Not Hold Services.

It was announced that Rev. B. B. Tyler, of New York City, would preach Sunday at the Christian tabernacle. Mr. Tyler however did not arrive in the city as was expected and no services were held at the tabernacle.

A. A. Garber, of Deer Creek, has sold his hotel there for $2800 and has moved to Bloomington.

MILLER ON MONEY.

Discussion of the Political Situation at the Congregational Church.

Was the Subject of the Pastor's Sermon Heard by a Large Congregation Sunday

Night.

At the Congregational church last evening Rev. W. C. Miller gave another sermon on the political questions of the day.
In the morning Rev. W. H. Prestley, of Kankakee, preached to a good congregation. At the evening services there was an unusually large attendance as the announcement of the minister's subject, "The Dollar Left Over," had attracted considerable attention. Next Sunday evening he will tell what is the duty of every American citizen on November 3.

Mr. Miller said that Americans held the life of their country as something holy and sacred. A man was unworthy of American citizenship who would speak lightly of the national life and not remember of our fathers covered with the blood of brothers and forefathers. It is not surprising that people should have widely divergent views as to the best policy of conducting the country. There are two opposing forces which are hurting. One is the undue demand for wealth and the other is that capital is made the object of hatred for all laboring men.
Mr. Miller said that during the past week he had been called almost overruling and almost anything, but he thought when one had ideas to express from true thought and for consecrated purposes they should do so. Fleck said that we gained our environments by the dollar left over.
That dollar is what lifts American labor on a level above the labor of the old world and induces the latter to come to this country. That dollar must not be changed in its value. It must ring with its historic dignity, it must go wherever the civilized brain of man goes because from an honest dollar must come an honest character. The morality of the dollar left over is a great factor in the present campaign. Men have been throwing one part of humanity against another, insisting that labor and capital must be antagonistical. This is not true. Labor is just as much against labor as it is against capital and capital is just as much against capital as it is against labor. If farm laborers are going to buy garments and they have their choice between two garments exactly alike, one of which had more expensive labor on it, they would take the cheaper.
That is labor against labor. Another case was brought to notice. A factory had work done outside. The man who had the contract sublet the work and ground down the laborers more than the factory ever dared. This was also labor against labor. The Standard Oil Company fighting against other companies was brought up as a case of capital against capital. The minister said that our sympathies were always for the man who was under. Political orators have so much love for the laborers that it is a wonder they do not go up and down distributing their wealth in their explosive love for humanity. The condemnation of wealth is a thing unbecomely and wrong.
There are men who denounce the rich and want to take the poor men up in their arms irrespective of their character and the good they may do to society. No distinction is made between the honest rich man and the monopolist and the honest and hard working laborer and the slovenly and lout. Such ideas are untrue to the principles of the American republic and cannot command the consideration of the people. Mr. Miller mentioned the fact that the statement had been made that the farmers suffered so much by prices going down. He read figures which showed that the receipts of railroads had gone down lower than the farmer's products. He spoke of the laboring man, how essential he was to the country and said he did not need the sneers and smiles of the politician, he stood on his own foundation, borrowed his own way through the world and would live as such forever. It was stated that reforms in the world never came through the well to do. Mr. Miller disputed this statement and mentioned cases in history to show that it was the well to do who brought on reforms.

In closing Mr. Miller said that he was not too optimistic. There was an element of greedy millionaire monopolists and sluggish good for nothing laborers which he hoped would both be wiped out to make room for the better rich men and honest laborers. This reformation would never come through a man who freed murderers from the place where they could murder no more, who wanted to tear down our supreme courts, or who would dare to keep back the federal troops when the curse of a mob is upon us.
